CODE OF CONDUCT

The Constitution deals with this matter at Rule 9. As a means of resolving issues of conduct before they become elevated to Board of Management level to be dealt with in terms of Rule 9, the Board of Management has developed a Code of Conduct for Bowling Members and other Members that each member is expected to comply with.

Bowling Member: Bowlers should understand that they represent the Club whilst participating in home and away events, Club sanctioned functions and whenever attending the Club. Bowler's actions as ambassadors of the Club directly affect how the Club is perceived and judged by individuals, our community and beyond.

Breach of the Code: Where a breach of the code occurs this will be dealt with fairly, promptly and consistently in accordance with the discipline procedure as identified in the code. Strict impartiality will be maintained at all times.

Aims of the Code:

- . That bowlers at all times should relate with each other in a peaceful, friendly and professional manner.
- . That an atmosphere of respect for both persons and property should exist.
- . That a safe environment conducive to a community club should exist.
- . That bowlers should grow and develop a sense of responsibility for the maintenance of a respectful club culture

The Code of conduct

As a member of the Club you must meet the following requirements in regard to your conduct during any bowling activity held or sanctioned by the Club and when representing or attending the Club.

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
- Be fair, considerate and honest in all dealings with others.
- Be professional in and accept responsibility for your actions. Your language, presentation and manners at all times (on and off the greens) should reflect high standards.
- Be a positive role model.
- Resolve conflicts fairly and promptly through established club procedures.
- Refrain from any form of harassment of others.
- Never argue or abuse a Club official.
- Maintain strict impartiality.
- Refrain from any behaviour that may bring the Club, a member association or an affiliated club into disrepute.
- Develop a positive Club environment by supporting the individual needs of the bowlers (particularly junior bowlers), by emphasising enjoyment for the game of bowls and by providing appropriate development experiences.
- Protect and promote the spirit of the game.

Discipline Procedure

Members must understand both the discipline procedure and the repercussions of breaching the Clubs Code of Conduct as outlined below:

Serious breaches of behaviour will be dealt with according to the constitution.

Communication:

The support and co-operation of bowlers is essential if the Bowling Member Code of Conduct is to operate efficiently. If a good relationship (communication) exists between Bowlers, Bowls Committees, Bowlers and Club Staff all members and guests will ultimately reap the benefits. To foster good communication, the following procedures are Club policy:

Dispute or disagreement between bowlers:

It is always preferable in the event of a dispute between Bowlers this be dealt with efficiently and effectively by the Bowlers concerned and without third party intervention. Where this is not possible the dispute is to be referred to the relevant Bowls Committee for resolution.

Dispute between a bowler and staff member:

Bowlers are not to raise concerns or grievances relating to specific Staff directly with the Staff member concerned or any other Staff member. Bowlers are to refer all Staff related concerns and grievances to the President of the relevant Bowls Committee who in turn will bring to the attention of the Board of Management Chairman. The Board of Management Chairman in consultation with the Bowls President will determine and effect the most appropriate course of action required.

Where a bowler has a specific concern regarding the administration/operation of bowling related activities or events and/or club operations specifically:

Bowlers are to refer any specific concern they have regarding the administration of bowling activities and/or the administration of club operations to the relevant Bowls President. The Bowls President will then determine the most appropriate course of action necessary.

Respect for an Officials' decision:

Bowlers are expected to respect and not challenge decisions made by Club officials (including selectors). Bowlers are required to understand verbal abuse or harassment of a Club official is a breach of this code.

Interaction with Junior Players:

Young people participate in the game of bowls for pleasure; to gain new life skills and winning is only part of the fun. Bowlers should demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility in words and actions when dealing with younger Bowlers. Bowlers should also be reasonable in their demands on young players' time, energy and enthusiasm.

Remaining Members and Guests:

All people entering the Club have a right to partake of the Clubs facilities in a safe, friendly, fun and supportive environment. Creating and maintaining this environment is the responsibility of each member and guest. The Club is enhanced when all members and guests share in promoting agreed standards of courtesy and behaviour.

Appeals Process:

An individual may appeal any penalties applied by the Club to the Club's Board of Management.
